*Civil Code Section 1950.5(b) allows deductions from the security deposit for: (1) the compensation of a landlord for a tenant's default in the payment of rent. (2) The repair of damages to the premises, exclusive of ordinary wear and tear, caused by the tenant or by a guest or licensee of the tenant. (3) The cleaning of the premises upon termination of the tenancy necessary to return the unit to the same level of cleanliness it was in at the inception of the tenancy. (4) To remedy future defaults by the tenant in any obligation under the rental agreement to restore, replace, or return personal property or appurtenances, exclusive of ordinary wear and tear, if the security deposit is authorized to be applied thereto by the rental agreement.

 The Owner/Agent is not required to provide receipts or other documentation if (1) the total deductions for repairs, cleaning and replacement do not exceed $125, or (2) the Resident has effectively waived the right to documentation.

☐ Total Deductions for Repairs, Cleaning and Replacement Do Not Exceed $125.

☐ Resident has Waived the Right to Documentation.
